Helmut Brokelmann is managing partner of the firm, which he joined in 1994.

He has worked on a range of cases involving Spanish national and EU competition law, EU law in general and regulatory law, across sectors such as telecommunications, media, pharmaceuticals, sports, energy, transport, or distribution, both in administrative proceedings (merger filings, cartels and other infringement proceedings) and in litigation before Spanish national courts (follow-on damages actions and stand-alone actions as well as administrative judicial appeal proceedings before the High Court and the Supreme Court) and both European Courts.

Over the past 15 years he has devoted more and more time to follow-on damages claims.

He has been ranked, without exception, amongst the best lawyers in the most prestigious professional rankings, such as Chambers, that on its 2024 edition, further states that «Helmut Brokelmann has a very high level of knowledge and strategic scope.»; «For me, he has been wonderful. We put ourselves in his hands and he took the lead, demonstrating his understanding.»; «Helmut Brokelmann has excellent judgement and is equally adept at winning the trust of clients and judges.»; «He has always impressed me with his knowledge and involvement in many cases.».

Helmut was research and teaching assistant at the Institute of Public International Law of the University of Munich (1988-1993) and is a regular lecturer in EU and competition law. He is the author of various publications in Spanish, English and German on competition law and EU law. He is the Spanish correspondent for the German competition law journal Wirtschaft und Wettbewerb.
