Helmut Brokelmann

Managing Partner

Helmut Brokelmann joined the firm in 1994 and became a partner of in 2000.

He has worked on a range of cases involving Spanish national and EU competition law, EU law in general and regulatory law, across sectors such as telecommunications, media, pharmaceuticals, energy, transport, sports or distribution, both in administrative proceedings (merger filings, cartels and other infringement proceedings) and in litigation before Spanish national courts (follow-on damages actions and stand-alone actions as well as administrative judicial appeal proceedings before the High Court and the Supreme Court) and both European Courts. Over the past 15 years he has devoted more and more time to follow-on damages claims.

He has been ranked, without exception, amongst the best lawyers in the most prestigious professional rankings, such as Chambers, that on its 2022 edition, further states that «Clients highlight him for being «extremely knowledgeable and provides grounded, realistic, assertive and objective advice». He focuses his practice on damages claims, infringement cases and merger filings».

Helmut was research and teaching assistant at the Institute of Public International Law of the University of Munich (1988-1993) and is a regular lecturer in EU and competition law. He is the author of various publications in Spanish, English and German on competition law and EU law. He is the Spanish correspondent for the German competition law journal Wirtschaft und Wettbewerb.
